Hi Jody,

I intended to call you at the end of last week, but the days just got away from me.

As you know from communications between our paralegals, I have calls into the union representative regarding the GLEA/FOP decision on Officer Schneider's representation. I just have not heard anything in response to my follow-up communications and messages. I will keep trying. I will be reaching out again to the individual with whom I spoke, and possibly others tomorrow, if I do not hear something tomorrow morning. Thanks for your patience on this important issue.

In addition, I need an extension on the RFP response. I have run into the summer problem—people have been or are now out of the office. I am asking for your professional courtesy for a two week extension.

I look forward to hearing from you. I will be in touch regarding the GLEA/FOP issue.

Thanks and hopefully you are not working right now!

Sincerely,

Joe
